

Danielle's Story

LT Danielle Mooney, U.S. Navy

My cause, animal rescue, is important to me because I am passionate about the fair and humane treatment of all animals. I provide fiscal support to organizations that continue to fight for stricter laws against abuse and cruelty against all animals. Funding to animal rescue organizations can be directly used to provide a temporary home for lost or abandoned pets until a responsible and loving home can be found.

"My cause, animal rescue, is important to me because I am passionate about the fair and humane treatment of all animals."

